WILCOX & GIBBS SEWING MACHINE.

We would call attention to the following facts in connection with this Machine, which renders it superior to any other in use:

It forms a flat elastic seam which will not rip or ravel.

It is entirely noiseless.

A patented device prevents its being turned backward;

The needle cannot be set wrong.

Can be used successfully without other instructions than accompany the Machine;

It received the Gold Medal of the American Institute in 1863. For particulars enquire of

AUTHORITIES OF VICTORIA AND THE "SHENANDOAH."

—Gen McDowell has furnished the following correspondence between our Consul at Victoria and the Colonial authorities, to the San Francisco papers for publication:

CONSULATE OF UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, }
VICTORIA, V. I., August 7 1865. }

To His Excellency, A. E. Kennedy, Governor of Vancouver Island, etc., etc., etc.

SIR: With the chapter of sad events reaching us within the last few days, touching the loss of the steamship Brother Jonathan, which has touched all hearts and filled many eyes with tears, it cannot have escaped your Excellency's attention that there came alarming statements of the doings of the war ship Shenandoah among the American whalemen and other American shipping in the Arctic Seas.

Pretending to disbelieve all newspaper accounts of the great rebellion having ended in the United States, and of the dissolution of the attempted Confederate Government, and especially failing to realize that all the commercial powers (including that of Great Britain,) have withdrawn all belligerent rights from vessels sailing under the Confederate flag, the Commander of the Shenandoah continues his work of destruction with a desperation that brands him with the spirit of piracy, rather than that of honorable warfare.

I beg to call your Excellency's attention to the fact that Mr. Johnson, President of the United States of America, has proclaimed that after reasonable time has elapsed for notice to reach the vessels of war sailing under the flag of the Confederates of the collapse of their pretended Government, the dispersion of their armies, and the capture or exile of its leading spirits—if such vessels continued the work of destruction and death, the officers and crew, in case of capture, would be treated as pirates. And in this connection, I beg your Excellency not to forget that some of the officers and almost the entire crew of the Shenandoah, are Englishmen, and subjects of her Majesty Queen Victoria. This vessel must sooner or later be captured, and unless these Englishmen abandon her and cease the work in which they are engaged, they must suffer the penalty pronounced by the President against them.

Has your Excellency no interest in warning them of their fate, and securing their escape in time?

But in another view: Your Excellency can call to mind the time, before the beginning of the terrible civil war in the United States, when the vessels of her Majesty's Government, being attacked by the Chinese, the war vessels of the United States made common cause with them, in the interest of humanity, commerce and civilization. The people of the United States and Great Britain cannot afford to forget that they are of common origin, language and religion; and it is the duty of us all to avail ourselves of every opportunity to cultivate the good feeling which ought to exist between the two Governments. Enough causes of irritation, growing out of the late insurrection in the United States, trouble the diplomacy of these countries; and we ought to prevent, as far as we can, the addition of others.

Such an opportunity is now afforded your Excellency. Some of her Majesty's gunboats are now in these waters, and are unoccupied. A short cruise would probably put one of them in communication with Captain Waddell, who commands the Shenandoah, and a friendly communication to him by the commander of one of her Majesty's vessels, of the actual condition of things in the United States, would probably be accepted as true, and result in the abandonment of the wicked business in which he is engaged.

I humbly and respectfully, but earnestly present the necessity of an effort on your Excellency's part to secure this result.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
(Signed) ALLEN FRANCIS, U. S. Consul.

His Excellency, A. E. KENNEDY, Governor of Vancouver Island.

VANCOUVER ISLAND, GOVERNMENT HOUSE,
VICTORIA, Aug. 8, 1865.

SIR: I have had the honor to receive your letter of yesterday's date, alluding to the destruction of American merchant-ships by the war vessel Shenandoah, and suggesting that one of Her Majesty's ships of war should communicate with that vessel, to inform the officers in command of the withdrawal of belligerent rights.

I beg to assure you that I greatly deplore the continuance of these purposeless depredations upon American commerce, and I would gladly exert my authority to put an end to them were the means at my disposal.

I will put myself in communication with Rear-Admiral, the Hon. G. Denman, who will, I am sure, use all legitimate means to remedy an evil which I feel confident he deprecates as strongly as I do.

With reference to the loss of the steamship Brother Jonathan, I may inform you that Admiral Denman would have sent a ship of war immediately to the scene of disaster, had there been one in the harbor available.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
(Signed.) A. E. KENNEDY, Governor.

Allen Francis, Esq., United States Consul, etc., etc., Victoria.

VANCOUVER ISLAND, Government House,
Victoria, August 11th, 1865.

SIR: Referring to my letter of the 8th inst., I have the honor to enclose the copy of a letter received from Rear-Admiral, the Honorable G. Denman. I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
(Signed.) A. E. KENNEDY, Governor.

Allen Francis, Esq., United States Consul, etc., etc., Victoria.

H. M. S. "SUTLEJ,"
ESQUIMALT, August 9th, 1865.

SIR: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your Excellency's letter of yesterday's date, and its enclosed.

2. With reference to the representation of Mr. Francis, United States Consul, I have already given directions that if the Shenandoah arrives at this port, she shall not be permitted to leave it as an armed vessel, and should I hereafter have reason to believe she is in this neighborhood, so that a probability exists of her being met with, I should send immediately to communicate with her, and, if necessary, to put a stop to her operations as a vessel of war.

3. But the information now received is so very vague as indicating where she may be at the present time, that it would be quite useless to send a vessel out, as there would be no chance of communicating with her.

I have, etc.,
G. DENMAN,
Rear Admiral and Commander-in-Chief

His Excellency Governor Kennedy, C. B., etc.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE

TUESDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 5.

Incorrigible New Jersey.

In New Jersey the admirers of slavery and opponents of freedom have at least the bad merit of being consistently wrong. It matters not to them that every other Northern State goes for the abolition of slavery. They ignore the fact that the South with an almost unanimous voice repudiates the abhorred system which has caused all her woes. They care not that even South Carolina declares she will ratify the Amendment, or that Mississippi in a general convention composed of members elected freely by the whole people of the State, has almost unanimously pronounced in favor of freedom. Though they are assured that the South wants to get rid of slavery, a large party of the Jerseyites are determined she shall have it still. In the exuberance of its kindly feeling for the Southern people, the Jersey "Democracy" wants them to retain a system which they are now convinced and do not hesitate to assert, has ever been their greatest bane. If these Jerseymen imagine they are promoting Southern interests by pursuing this course, the South may well pray to be saved from its friends.

It is a curious study to inquire into the causes of the incorrigibility of the pro slavery party in New Jersey and elsewhere. Their opposition to the beneficent change that is to take place when freedom shall become firmly established in the room of slavery, does not grow out of any desire to promote the public good or conserve the interests of the country at large, but it proceeds entirely from the narrow views which are inculcated by a long and exclusive attachment to party and to partisan measures. The ideas of such persons revolve wholly within the vicious and limited circle of party politics, and many, perhaps conscientiously think they are doing their whole duty to their country, when, in reality, their views do not rise a whit above the despicable level on which their sect or party has taken its stand. From this cause men become partisans instead of patriots. In this manner party is placed before country, and the allegiance which the latter ought to receive is transferred entirely to the former.

Another reason growing out of the one we have just noted, causes the "Democracy" of New Jersey (and of Oregon too, for the party in these two States seems nearly the same) to oppose the final extinguishment of slavery. Many "Democrats" though convinced of their wrong, feel that they must be consistent. For years they have championed slavery, and they cannot now recant. It will not do for them to expose their fallibility to the sight of men. We read of a Dr Sangrado, who though killing every one of his patients by improper treatment adhered always to the same old system of medication, because it had the sanction of himself and his school. Gil Blas we are told, urged him to spare the lives of his patients by prescribing a different treatment but the learned Doctor gravely replied: "I have written a book in favor of warm water and blood letting, and though my patients never recover, the principles of medical science must not be trifled with by our making a change in the mode of practice." So it is with the Northern adherents of slavery. They took a position against freedom years ago, and having written and spoken with wonderful volubility and prolixity in favor of the blessed system of human servitude, their professional devotion to the creed of their party will not permit them to discard their old errors and adopt more enlightened opinions.

Spite of their inflexible devotion to slavery, the cardinal doctrine of their political faith, the New Jersey "Democracy" will scarcely succeed in the election which is to be held in that State a few weeks hence. The Constitutional Amendment was defeated there last winter, but the Legislature which pronounced in opposition to the great measure, was not elected on an issue made up for and against ratification. In the present canvass, the Amendment is brought fairly before the people. The soldiers of that State, heretofore disfranchised because the "Democracy" was afraid of their votes, are now at home, and it is needless to say on which side their ballots will fall. We are decidedly of the opinion that New Jersey, hitherto incorrigible, will be so but a little longer.

CURE FOR DRUNKENNESS.—"An exiled Pole" describes in an English paper "a cure for drunkenness." He says that a patient is shut up in a room and debarred from all communication except with his physician. As often as he pleases spirits are given him, mixed with two-thirds of water. So also are all other drinks, as well as beer, tea, or wine mingled with one-third water. The various kinds of solid food are all prepared with brandy; consequently, the patient is in a state of continual intoxication. This lasts about five days. At the end of that time the patient [illegible] for other food, and ever afterward the smell of alcohol acts as an emetic.

We are acquainted with some bibacious fellows "of the baser sort," who would like to be made the victims of the liberal treatment above described. For the sake of enjoying their brandy and [illegible] for the space of five blissful days, they would be willing to incur some risks of nausea and [illegible]. Indeed, we are persuaded that the above is the very method many would take pleasure in adopting, in order to cure their wonderful partiality for inebriating fluids. A more delightful system of mitigation, they would be unable to devise.

"Dare our Oregon Abolition cotemporaries tell us what they think of John Brown and his crimes, of his punishment, and whether he deserved it?" —State Rights Democrat.

We have repeatedly said that John Brown committed treason and that in conformity with law he justly suffered the penalty which should follow that crime. Now does O'Meara "dare" to tell us what he thinks of the crimes of Jeff. Davis and his coadjutors, and whether these men deserve the punishment John Brown received? We should like to have an answer, but we reckon O'Meara don't "dare" to give it. Were he to be driven to acknowledge that Jeff. ought to be hanged, the Confederate subscribers of the Democrat would quit that paper instanter. Therefore he doesn't "dare."

ADVANTAGES OF CRITICISM.—A journeyman hatter, a companion of Dr. Franklin, on commencing business for himself, was anxious to get a handsome sign-board, with a proper inscription. This he composed himself, as follows: "John Thompson, hatter, makes and sells hats for ready money," with the figure of a hat subjoined. But he thought he would submit it to his friends for amendments. The first he showed it to thought the word hatter tautologous, because followed by the words "makes hats," which showed he was a hatter; it was struck out. The next observed that the word "makes" might as well be omitted because his customers would not care who made the hats, if good, and to their mind, they would buy, by whomsoever made. He struck that out also. A third said he thought the words "for ready money," were useless, as it was not the custom of the place to sell on credit—every one who purchased expected to pay. These, too, were parted with, and the inscription then stood: "John Thompson sells hats." "Sells hats!" says his next friend; "why, who expects you to give them away? What, then, is the use of this word?" It was struck out, and hats was all that remained attached to the name John Thompson. Even this inscription brief as it was, was reduced ultimately to "John Thompson," with the figure of the hat subjoined.

A WONDERFUL STONE.—It is said that a mad stone, in the possession of Sister Elizabeth formerly of the Catholic school in Lafayette, now of Valparaiso, cured more than fifty persons who had been bitten by mad dogs. The stone acts as a leech, and, applied to the wound, absorbs all the poison.

A MORMON BELL.—A church bell has been ordered at Troy for Great Salt Lake City. They say it is to call Brigham Young's wives together. Brigham divides his affections among three hundred and sixty five ladies (one for each day in the calendar).

LETTER FROM NEW YORK.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

NEW YORK, August [illegible]

THE SANGERFEST.

Bowery and the Teutonic portion of our community are beginning to think of again attending to their regular business next week. They will put in long [illegible] fest on their own hook during to-day and to-morrow, tapering off with lighter draughts of their gambrinus liquid than those they have quaffed in honor of their guests for the last six days. Three thousand [illegible] lager enough drank in the past week to have filled Broadway from 14th street to Bowling Green, so the twenty thousand kegs have been computed. How they manage to sing so splendidly with so much [illegible] inside of them is a mystery to some physiologists.

AN OVERHAULING

If affairs in the Brooklyn Navy Yard among the mechanics has brought to light how some of the "bosses" obtain such magnificent furniture for their residences. A couple of cabinet makers to [illegible] having worked a year on elegantly carved black walnut secretaries and chests, etc., all of which while drawing pay from Uncle Sam, whose tools and wood were used. The whole arrangement has now been "busted up."

DAN SICKLES

Will probably be the commander of this city and harbor under General Hooker and his appointment will be the most satisfactory ever made here. The announcement will probably be made in a few days when "Dan" can enjoy the comforts of his elegant home on the Bloomingdale road, and be doing double duty for his country.

WIVES

For the lone male citizens of Washington Territory are nearly in the market. Hon. Mr Mercer of that ilk has been to see Gov. Andrew of Massachusetts and arranged with him to procure three hundred Yankee girls as emigrants to the Pacific. Andrew went into the movement heart and soul, and Mercer returned to Washington where, after seeing almost everybody in the Government line, he finally got consent to the use of the United States transport Deepday for the conveyance of the crinoline and its wearers to Aspinwall free of charge. Their passage is said to have been already secured for a moderate sum from Panama to San Francisco and Puget Sound.

STEAMER FOR SAN FRANCISCO

The new and elegant propeller Montana (that the Pacific mail boat of that name will sail from this port about the 12th of August for San Francisco touching at Rio Janeiro and Valparaiso. She was built recently at Bath Me. and is said to be a very handsome craft. It is claimed that the voyage can and will be made in seventy days. Her rates of passage are $275, and $200 with less prices for children. I hear she is intended to run from San Francisco to some of the northern ports after discharging her cargo inside the Gold Gate.

MISCELLANY

One of the provost marshals of our sister city Brooklyn, named Waldron, who disappeared recently for fear of a trial before a military court for alleged peculations, has turned up in the Canadian gold diggings.

The theatrical wardrobe of Booth the assassin, picked up in the wreck of the schooner Marie Victoire, has been sold at auction in Canada bringing high prices.

The citizens of Flushing L. I. have started a monument to their boys who have fallen in the war for the Union.

"Laughing gas" has been safely administered by Dr Carnochan in an operation for the removal of a cancer from the breast of a lady in delicate health. Sixteen minutes were occupied in the operation during which the pulse was full and strong, and the patient entirely insensible to pain.

The Fenians had a big meeting in Jones' Wood the other day. Five thousand were present, and there was music, dancing and speaking.

It is estimated that seventy thousand barrels of lager are consumed weekly in this city.

There is a great scarcity of female operatives in New England, and wages are unprecedentedly high.

The Empress Eugenie has sent one thousand francs to the French Orphan Asylum in New York.

Highwaymen are at work in the vicinity of New York and one very bold robbery is reported.

Silver is said to have been discovered in Springfield Mountains, Union county New Jersey.

Michael Hart, a porter in the New York Post Office, has been arrested for robbing the mails. Drafts to the amount of $8,000 were found in the possession of a woman with whom he had been living.

The secesh sculptor, Volk, has a statue of Stonewall Jackson, ordered by the rebel Government of Virginia on his hands. "What will he do with it?"

A bogus Prussian baron, named Von Sauton, has just procured a divorce from his wife, better known as Eliza Pratt, keeper of a house of prostitution in New York, whom he married in a moment of infatuation, without, as he says, a knowledge of her business.

A new suspension bridge for foot passengers, is to be erected across the Niagara river, and nearer the falls than the celebrated railroad bridge.

Mr Richard Montgomery is soon to put up a stretch of his proposed overground railroad on Broadway, to show the people what he intends. The line will be on iron posts, so arranged that the cars would run on a level with the second story windows.

The Herald professes to have reason to believe that Eloin, Maximilian's chief of cabinet, who has just landed here from Europe, carries back to Mexico the advice of Louis Napoleon and of King Leopold, that, under all the circumstances, and, seeing that it is now evident that the people of Mexico do not desire to have an emperor to rule over them, the best plan for Maximilian will be to abdicate as early as possible, and return to Europe. That then the French troops, having nothing further to do there, will also retire and so the whole of this disagreeable and unfortunate Mexican business will be ended without any further trouble. Napoleon and Maximilian will both have paid a noble tribute to the great doctrine of satisfied nationalities, and have very materially strengthened by such an act of wisdom and abnegation their present and future positions in Europe, and, above all things, will have avoided any difficulty with the United States.

The following appointments are noted: Postmaster—E. G. Randall, Portland, Oregon; Indian Agent—J. R. Watson, Washington Territory; United States Marshal—Henry D. Burrows of California. Among recent promotions are the following: Pay Department—Lieut. Col. Hiram Leonard Deputy Paymaster General, San Francisco to be Colonel. Majors Cary H. Fry, Samuel Woods, E. Wright and J. A. Whitehall, of San Francisco, to be Lieut. Colonels.

Advices from various parts of the South, particularly Virginia, North Carolina and Alabama, represent the feeling against the national Government to be as bitter as ever. It seems quite certain that the conciliatory course of the President and his free use of the pardoning power, has tended to puff up the more arrogant of the rebel inhabitants with the idea that they are entitled to a great many more rights than the result of the late war for the Union would justify. Just think of William A. Graham, even now threatening to oppose the return of North Carolina to the Union in her State Convention, unless the negro suffrage question is arranged exactly as he wishes it! and yet that is just the course of thousands of the people of the ex-seceded States. It only shows that not half enough of the coercive power has yet been applied to some of those gentry and that a strict military rule in most of the Southern States is very desirable for some time to come.

It is hinted that the present government of Virginia will shortly be substituted by a military government, and indeed it is much more than likely that if the new Legislatures of the Southern States contain a large number of disloyalists and their soon to be chosen Congressmen should prove of a similar stripe, the States will be turned over to the territorial condition and military rule.

The report of Commissioner of Agriculture for June and July says: "Some of your correspondents in the mining territories have expressed their apprehensions as to the necessity of relying on irrigation and there is little doubt but it will be the leading feature of agriculture in the dry summer climates of the trade wind region. In Nevada and places where nothing but sage brush had grown before irrigation, fine vegetables and cereals grow beyond expectation when irrigated, and all such lands before regarded as worthless were rapidly occupied."

The renowned game cock fighter ex-Dictator of Mexico, Señor Don Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna, has shown his hand at last. In a manifesto [illegible] his place [illegible] in the island of St. Thomas he takes ground against Maximilian, and once more offers his services to his country in any [illegible] to [illegible]. In the course of his proclamation he says: "The hopes of those who sought to [illegible] the Republic denied them have been disappointed: the national dignity has been [illegible], justice derided; [illegible] rights trodden under foot, thought enslaved, prostitution exalted and virtue vilified; the [illegible] draped in mourning and the Church afflicted with tribulations. Terror is seated on the scaffold brandishing over the patriots the knife of extermination. War to the invaders! Liberty or death should be the cry of every generous Mexican in which [illegible] home, independence her altar, and liberty her rights."

Archibald Matthews, apparently between forty five and fifty years of age, committed suicide in Greenwood cemetery on Saturday. Letters to his son and wife were found on [illegible] written in a most tender [illegible] and seeming [illegible] made in water [illegible]. The father of the [illegible] Jacks [illegible]. He resides on a plantation [illegible] Live Oak station, [illegible] Georgia Railroad, and was [illegible] the scoundrel who was the chief agent in torturing our prisoners at Andersonville, [illegible]. It will be clearly proved by the testimony of [illegible] soldiers and of Southern men [illegible] character that Wirz committed the murder of more than half a dozen [illegible] conduct was brutal and inhuman, that he not only [illegible] the guards to shoot [illegible] without warning but that in at least one case he ordered ten young men prisoners to be hanged without trial or preparation [illegible]. Joseph Van Doren a city weigher and gauger was shot dead on Saturday last in his office in Denver street by James [illegible] Oram, formerly in the employ but now of the firm [illegible] Oram & [illegible] are also city weighers and gaugers. The accounts vary as to the cause, the prisoner stating that Mr. Van Doren had called him a thief to too many of his friends and [illegible] his character, that he called on Mr. Van Doren to ask an apology, when they became involved in a quarrel during which he alleges Mr. Van Doren violently assaulted him, and he shot him in self defense.

A gentleman recently from Salisbury, N. C., brings information of the burning by ourselves of the bull pen where our prisoners were confined last winter.

Mr. Elisha Kingsland, one of the [illegible] Assistant Engineers of the Volunteer Fire Department has been appointed Chief Engineer.

A young woman, who gave the name of Mary Brown, died recently in the private lying-in hospital of Mrs. Worcester, in Hudson street, this city. She revealed nothing, except that the man to whom she gave her trust in girlhood, had within eight years frequently placed her in the hands of physicians whose names she declined to disclose, and that this was her seventh visit abroad to seek temporary shelter under a stranger's roof; that on the 6th inst. she submitted to an operation at the hands of a city physician from the effects of which she afterwards died. Nothing more was ascertained and the corpse was quietly buried. One more sad [illegible] death.

Gen. Lewis B. Parsons who has been connected with the transportation department of the army all through the war, and whose [illegible] success in the various important positions he has filled, stated the other day at a meeting of the Alumni of Yale College that since the surrender of Jo. Johnston the War Department has mustered out of the service and sent home over 700,000 men. It was added, and the [illegible] a surprise to the country [illegible] that at the close of hostilities by the event above named the Union armies amounted to nearly one million of men.

The steamer Marcella has reached [illegible] with $500,000 in gold dust from Montana. New and rich mines are reported [illegible] 200 miles from Fort Benton.

The crop prospects in the West don't look [illegible], owing to recent heavy rains. The extreme Northern States however [illegible] Illinois, Indiana and Ohio [illegible] and may give a full yield of grain. The states mentioned will fall far behind their usual crops.

THE ANNIVERSARY PARADE.—The first annual parade of the Portland Fire Department took place in this city yesterday afternoon. In accordance with the programme [illegible] formed between the hours of [illegible] under the direction of Chief Engineer [illegible] and Assistants Reed and Johnson. The [illegible] Brass Band headed the procession, [illegible] which was the Board of Delegates and members of the [illegible]. It was expected that the Mayor and City [illegible] would [illegible] with individual [illegible] very busy day [illegible] were in part [illegible] and three hearty cheers were given for the [illegible] and although they [illegible] they were [illegible] by the firemen under the [illegible] included three companies [illegible] by about forty men [illegible] Defrene and Assistants [illegible] was tastefully [illegible] No. 1 came Multnomah No. 2 [illegible] Johnson was unable to attend [illegible] were under the charge [illegible] First Assistant and Second Assistant [illegible]. The company made an excellent appearance [illegible] of Hunneman make, has seen good [illegible] but was well appearing yesterday [illegible] Foreman T. J. Young and Assistant [illegible] Burnham were [illegible] headed by a band of martial music. The company made a very handsome appearance [illegible]. They have a very fine machine [illegible] Toel's Germania Band preceded the [illegible] following which was Protection Engine [illegible] Burton Foreman and Messrs. [illegible] Assistants numbering thirty [illegible] have the original machine of the [illegible] has seen a great deal of service [illegible] are a fine set of men and made a most [illegible] display. Vigilance Hook and Ladder Company [illegible] L. R. Martin and Assistants [illegible] made a fine feature of the [illegible] with their [illegible] elegant [illegible] and fixtures. The different [illegible] to the effect of the display. Thus formed [illegible] marched through the principal streets [illegible] no finer show has been made [illegible] was made by them yesterday. In passing the Public Plaza the line covered nearly three sides [illegible] or about 1000 feet in extent. [illegible] and hence [illegible] of the merits of the line, but we are [illegible] that it has never been [illegible] older and more pretentious [illegible] of the parade the dinner [illegible] the Oregon Steam Navigation Company's [illegible]. The upper deck [illegible] and tables loaded with the most [illegible] tempingly spread before the [illegible] by the [illegible] of the What Cheer Hotel. The wines [illegible] as good as the other [illegible] and the crowd very decorously seated [illegible] partaking in a modest manner at first [illegible] of champagne corks elicited merriment [illegible] responses were frequently made [illegible] "The Anniversary [illegible] to the Fire Department of this [illegible] of July to the National Government [illegible] it not be the last celebration [illegible] enthusiastically drank. During [illegible] the President of the Board of [illegible] and he replied by reviewing [illegible] the Department in Portland [illegible] when the first Company was organ[illegible] some eleven years ago the first [illegible]. This was not the anniversary of any [illegible] in the organization, but was merely [illegible] of an annual parade for the Department [illegible] at the table, the 1st and 2d [illegible] Engineers were presented, by Mr [illegible] on behalf Chief Engineer Buchtel, [illegible] silver belt plate, surmounted with a [illegible] their respective companies, and [illegible] and inscribed. The procession [illegible] and marched to the several Houses, [illegible] to the What Cheer Hotel [illegible] the chief caterer, Mr O'Connor, for his [illegible] them with a choice dinner. As each [illegible] at their House, three cheers were given [illegible] the Department, and the most noticeable fea[illegible] were [illegible] The American Eagles [illegible] Company, were perched upon the [illegible] overlooking the street. Virginia Politics

NEW YORK, Aug. [illegible].—The Herald's Richmond correspondent [illegible] that the citizens of the city had [illegible] the [illegible], for which they had some time past been making preparations. All the [illegible] were present [illegible] Davis. The [illegible] not being [illegible] that [illegible] in taking the [illegible] and pronouncing it an [illegible] as utterly groundless and false, and profess the warmest [illegible] to the National Government [illegible] results of the war, including the abolition of slavery.

Capture by Guerrillas on the Mississippi

NEW YORK, Aug. [illegible].—The Herald's Vicksburg correspondent reports the capture of a steamer by a party of guerrillas who released the officers [illegible]. They did not leave until they had seized everything portable aboard. Other outrages as well as [illegible] by them are recorded. In order to put a stop to lawlessness in that State Gov. Sharkey has by proclamation called for the formation of one company of volunteers in each county. Cotton stealing by vagrant negroes is very frequent at Vicksburg.

From the Rio Grande.

NEW YORK, August 31.—The Times's Brownsville letter of the 12th says that the line of the Rio Grande is growing dark with troops. Gen. Steele is said to be getting things in order, but owing to bad water and want of vegetables the mortality among the troops is serious.

California News

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—The minority who bolted from the Independent Union Convention on Saturday, have in conjunction with some of the Felton party nominated the following Union ticket: For Senate, A. L. Tubbs, F. M. Pixley; for Assembly, Chas Cushing, H. A. Hathaway, A. F. Sabrador, S. L. Cutler, David Dwyer, H. A. Cardon, James Bowman, Louis Cohn, Chas I. Higgins, J. M. Burnett, Henry Dutton, R. I. Bugbee. The parties constituting the minority or bolters from the Independent Convention, are nearly all Specific Contract men, and this ticket is understood to be pledged against repeal. The object thought to be attained is to divide the Independent Union Party and leave the field to Felton.

The sentence of Byrnes for the murder of Hall has been postponed till Saturday. The prisoner continues to exhibit the same levity as was manifested after the trial.

The Pacific Mail Steamship Company are selling tickets by the Colorado, which sails on the 18th inst., at $210 for First Cabin, outside rooms; $157 50 do, inside; $75 for Second Cabin, and $45 for steerage. The rates by the America on the 13th will be of course proportionately low.

The weather yesterday and to-day was exceedingly warm.

Markets.

Private dispatches quote gold in New York on Saturday, Sept 2d, at 144¼@143, and common whisky at 2 25 per gal, and advancing consequent upon the official assurance that there is to be no reduction in the excise. Upon the strength of this information, common distilled spirits are held with more confidence for advanced rates. Mining stocks are dull. Legal tenders inactive at previous quotations. Butter—Isthmus tends upward, under a New York dispatch dated Sept 2d, quoting an advance to 40c, sales of 150 firkins at 37c, and choice States now held at 37½@38c. Coffee—has advanced ½c per pound, with sales of 600 bgs Java at 26c, and 500 do Central American at 22c, now held at 22½c. Cranberries—sales of 100 kgs at 16c. Mackerel—200 kits No. 1 sold at 2 75. Sugar—the price of golden yellow C has been advanced to 12½, the demand being in excess of current supply. Whisky—Bourbon $6. Flour is in rather better request. Prices are without change; sales 4,000 qr and hlf sks at $5 50@5 75 for extra; $5@5 37½ for superfine. Wheat—Market quiet, and a portion of receipts are going into store, the export prices being below the views of holders; sales, 117 sks No. 2 at $1 65; 5 750 do No 1, $1 70; 500 sks choice milling, $1 72½ ⅌ 100 lbs. Barley is dull. Sales of 1 050 sks feed at 92½c; 250 do, choice brewing, $1 ⅌ 100 lbs. Corn—sales 250 sks new crop, at $2 50 ⅌ 100 lbs, quality fair. Hay is irregular, 250 tons poor, $8 50; good, $13@14.

Arrived—ship Eugenia from Shanghae.

Sailed to-day—bark Rival, Victoria; brig Glencoe, Humboldt.

A Tribune Scribe on Ankles.

From the New York Tribune July 2[illegible]

Yesterday, for the first time, we took it into our head to make a hasty study of this charming and suggestive feature of female beauty from an entirely ethnological and purely esthetic point of view. Representatives of almost every European nation participated in the amusement. The wind was high, the [illegible] the lady horses were swift and the [illegible] was easy as well as delectable.

We are entertained by numerous examples the following fact.

The German ankle is, as a general thing, not beautiful. It is short, thick, clumsy. Yet to the eye of the love-sick swain it may appear more graceful than that of the Venus de Medici. Nevertheless there are many kinds of ankles of German formation, and some of them are not at all unsymmetrical.

"Bright maiden of Orkney,
Star of the blue sea,
I've swept o'er the waters
To gaze upon thee."

So sang the Berserker of old, and he evidently had cultivated his taste for ankles in his own native land. But, generally, the Danish ankle is too abrupt in its descent from the swell of the calf to the delicacy of the approach to the foot. This gives it a clumsy appearance and prevents it from being a special favorite.

The ankle of Saxony (of course we speak always of female ankles,) is worse than the Danish. It is shorter, thicker, and indicative of vigor, and vigor only.

But the Swiss ankle is a model of beauty. Long, slim, elegant, delectable, it is something to think and dream of. The peasant stocking, the plaid covers it with fairy-like exactness. You can see the keen muscles play beneath the folds of the covering. It swells not abruptly, but gently upward into a perfect calf. Only the Alpine roads, the rude torrent crossings, the romance of Switzerland could produce such an ankle. It is for a picture rather than for an every day sight: it is for the painter, the poet and the philosopher. It is beautiful, delectable, charming, enchanting. It is strongly suggestive.

The ankle of Bavaria is also beautiful. Lean and elegant. It however broadens too quickly as it approaches the foot, which is an imperfection not easily to be overlooked by the connoisseur.

Austria is worse. Her ankle has the fault of having no taper. The calf of the leg ends at the foot.

Hungary is the same. This is probably owing to the inhuman tyranny which has trodden over her for years. Women are compelled to pull plows and canal boats, and engage in other species of degrading labors more mete for cattle, steam and caloric engines, and nothing better could be expected of their ankles.

Prussia makes a better show, but on the whole her ankles are not good, and, in dancing, she has a ludicrous custom of switching up her petticoats, in order to make a special display.

The Irish ankle needs no eulogy. It speaks for itself.

The English is fair, indicative of great feats of walking, and other exercises.

The French ankle is positively bad. The fault with the German is usually an excess of size—a superfluity of flesh and muscular power, but the French errs in an entirely opposite direction. It is too slim. It is long, thin, scrawny. The ascending swell to the calf (inordinately large) is too long and gradual, and the largeness and homeliness of the foot also detract from the general effect.

Italy has an exquisite ankle, light, graceful, full of elasticity, and yet with a languid listlessness which recalls the p[illegible] of Naples and the evening lounge round the "winged lions of St Mark."

But perfection is only reached in the ankle of the Spanish girl. It is soft, slight, luxurious and rife with tremulous, nervous thrills. It descends to the little foot with firm confidence, but it rises to, and is slowly [illegible] in, the gradual expansion of the leg with the happiness of illimitable progression.

A Spanish maid was upon a hobby-horse, which was flying at full speed. Her dark face was aglow with the exercise, her little hands clutched the bridle with [illegible], and her large eyes, "wild with the fire of the South," were emitting more than their wont [illegible] blaze, but the gaze of the admiring throng was fixed upon her ankle—her [illegible] charms. As the wind—the south wind, fresh from the sea, with all the [illegible] of the tropics—gently lifted her crinoline, and that delightful, perfect, delectable ankle was suddenly exposed to view, a deep sigh arose from the breasts of the gazers, and when still higher the amorous breeze elevated the coy striped petticoat and the rounded, glorious calf of the damsel was [illegible] visible, the deep respiration of the spectators was almost painful.

BARNUM'S PROPOSED NEW MUSEUM.—Very few people have any idea of the capital required to start such an enterprise as Mr. Barnum proposes. He calculates that the cost of the ground will be $400,000, building $250,000, collection, $150,[illegible] total, $800,000.

The museum will contain large halls of curiosities, a long saloon, with stage, for philosophic and [illegible] lectures and experiments, a polytechnic department, for the exhibition of working models of new inventions, a picture gallery, [illegible], immense theater on the ground floor, where equestrian performances will be given three months each year, in Winter; pantomime three months, in Summer, and "high-classed moral dramas and spectacles" during the rest of the year. On the roof will be [illegible] the zoological gardens, containing animals of every nature, the whole covered with a well-ventilated story above the roof. An elevator will be worked by a steam engine in the cellar, and the whole structure will be fire-proof. This is, as we understand it, but a faint outline of the new museum project of which Mr Barnum is sole proprietor. Its success will depend greatly on the cordial co-operation of Americans at home and abroad—a co-operation which will doubtless be given heartily and intelligently. Mr. Barnum is receiving letters of sympathy from [illegible] offering him donations of [illegible] of stuffed birds, Revolutionary relics, and [illegible] record [illegible] him with a very unique coll[illegible], which will be of great [illegible].

LEE'S LETTER TO MOSBY.—The following letter from Lee to Mosby was [illegible] last Spring by one of our o[illegible] [illegible] that the outrages then committed had the approval of the former:

HEADQUARTERS ARMY NORTHERN VIRGINIA,
September 19, 1864.

Lieutenant-Colonel John S. Mosby, Commanding, etc.—Colonel: Your report of the operations of your command from the 1st of March to the 11th of September is received.

I am much gratified with the activity and skill you have displayed, and desire to express my thanks to yourself and the brave officers and men of your command for the valuable service to the country.

The smallness of your loss in comparison with the damage inflicted upon the enemy is creditable to your own judgment and to the intelligence and courage of those who executed your orders. I hope you will continue to harass the enemy's troops as much as possible, and restrain his efforts to exercise civil authority in the counties in which you are operating. I inclose copy of a letter written some time since in case the original should not have reached you, and call your attention to the instructions it contains.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
R. E. LEE, General.

COST OF COLONIZATION.—The Nashville Press quotes from the Macon (Georgia) Journal, and replies as follows:

"'Colize him. Give him a country to himself, furnish him the necessary farming and mechanical implements, establish him in a fertile region (in Mexico if you please) with a year's supplies.' There is one little objection to this scheme. It would require an outlay of at least $2,000 for each darkey, which would make aggregate cost of $8,000,000,000 provided the negroes did not increase any in the half century which would be required to colonize them. If they multiplied the cost might be fairly estimated at $416,000,000,000,000,000,000 3/4, which sum we undertake to say we couldn't pay."

Gen Chambers of Texas, a prominent rebel, worth $3,000,000, was recently murdered by a gang of jayhawkers. Magruder was accompanied in his flight to Mexico by Leon Smith, who shot Captain Wainwright of the United States steamer Harriet Lane. They were pursued to the Rio Grande by a large gang of jayhawkers. Gen Murrah is believed to have carried off into Mexico full one hundred thousand dollars in gold stolen from the State Treasury.

Ollendorf the grammar writer, who died recently, is said to have lived shabbily in the fourth or fifth story of a great chocolate factory in the Rue Richelieu at Paris. He bought none but second hand newspapers, that is, papers a day old and which had gone through many hands. He died wealthy.

SHAMELESS.—A bill has been presented to the United States of rent for Libby Prison since April 3 1865. It is suggested that the next thing will be the presentation of an account by the owner of the land near Andersonville, where 17,000 murdered Union soldiers lie buried.

A SHORT SERMON BY PARSON BROWNLOW.—The rebels often liken themselves to the Prodigal Son, and think that they should be received like him, on the first sign of repentance. Parson Brownlow, for he is none the less the Parson now that he has become Governor, shows up the points of difference very effectively. He says:

Just. The Prodigal Son did not secede. He went with his father's consent and, as the Scripture indicate, with his blessing. Next he went not to [illegible] and vilify the old man to his own house. He asked for nothing to start him in the world; he did not [illegible] the old man and [illegible] his greenbacks or watch. He received the portion his father gave him. He did not press it—a modern Southern name for stealing. And receiving it he started out to seek his fortune. He did not return to the South side of the old man's farm with a band of robbers who were plundering the old man and his law abiding neighbors. Receiving his portion, he quietly took his journey into a far country. Finally he repented of his folly, not because the old man whipped him into repentance, but because he came to himself, and saw that he had wasted his substance in riotous living. He went back home, not with murder in his heart, boasting how many he had killed and threatening what he would do, but he bowed down to the [illegible] and asked all sorts of pardon. He didn't return saying "I have fought four years and until I was overpowered," but he went back crying "Father I have sinned against Heaven and in thy sight and am no more worthy to be called thy son." He [illegible] said, "Make me as one of thy hired servants." He went home because throughout his entire course of riotous living his heart was there. He did not return demanding his rights, his property and back rents. He did not ask instant pardon upon the faith of an oath of amnesty, but proposed to prove his repentance genuine by his works. The story of the prodigal son is one of sincere, deep, heartfelt and voluntary repentance for a great wrong. Do our returning rebels come repenting of their unparalleled crimes? As long as rebellion showed any signs of success did they show any signs of repentance? Are they coming back because they love the Union, or were about to "perish with hunger?" All who return peaceably to their homes, cultivate friendly relations, and abstain from hostile acts, discountenance every attempt at disorder, should be met with the same spirit and treated with leniency. When they manifest a hostile spirit make them bite the dust.

CONVERSATION WITH GEN SHERMAN IN CHICAGO.—General S (to a soldier visiting him) "You were with General —— on his march, were you?"

"Yes General, and we nearly starved to death too. I know I lived four days on sugar."

"Well, you could have pushed right through I should think, and avoided all your troubles."

"So we could General. We were just kept dawdling along, wasting our time, until our provisions gave out."

"And no subsistence in the country, I suppose?"

"Scarcely any, General."

"Ah! —— should have kept in the next tier of counties. He would have found plenty of food and forage. Plenty!"

The writer. "Why, General, do you know the whole country—all the counties in all the States?"

"Pretty well, a good deal of it. And what is not known personally can easily be found out nearly enough, from the last census return."

"You made use of that, did you, sir, in your campaigns?"

"Always traveled with it in my saddle-bags. I could tell how many inhabitants, how many cultivated acres, how many head of cattle and horses, how many bushels of grain each county possessed at that time, and so, approximately, how many there would be now, and how long it would subsist an army."

(Turning to another soldier) "You were wounded in the crossing of the Salkehatchie."

"Yes, in General M——'s brigade."

"Ah, you were down there by the cut timber."

"We had got way beyond that—to the causeway. We were all lying low, and the Colonel asked me if the men couldn't be got upon the causeway. I jumped upon it myself, but hadn't more than struck my feet when I tumbled."

"I only meant —— to make a feint there while I crossed higher up, where we did cross."

So continued the courteous and gentlemanly soldier, passing a few remarks with each of his many visitors during the time our call lasted.—Prairie Chicken.

A BRUTAL KEEPER OF A REBEL PRISON PEN REPORTED KILLED.—When Stoneman's cavalry entered Salisbury (N C) last Spring, and caused the precipitate flight of the rebel garrison there with its few prisoners, Major John H. Gee, formerly commandant of the Penitentiary or Military Prison at that point, and who was one of the greatest brutes and most cruel tyrants that ever disgraced the South, hurried toward Charlotte, and has never since been heard of.

A gentleman from Salisbury, long a resident there, says that Gee was shot dead near Charlotte by a rebel deserter who had vowed vengeance against the Major for some brutality, and who "bushwhacked" the villain while he was riding through a pine thicket.

Of all the scoundrels who systematically starved and froze our brave soldiers in the prison-pens of the South, there was none more infamous, none more deserving of the fate which seems to have overtaken him than Gee. He it was who, when asked if full rations could not be given the starved and dying Union prisons in December, 1864, as the storehouses were full, replied "No, d—d d—n them, give them quarter rations; it's more than they deserve." He, too, was responsible for the cold blooded massacre of our captives there when the attempted outbreak occurred on the 25th of November last. We hope the report of his death is well founded, for such a villain as he should not be permitted to live.—N Y Tribune, July 29th.

OIL NEWS FROM HUMBOLDT.—The Del Norte arrived from Humboldt Bay yesterday, and brought forty five barrels of oil, the most of which was shipped from the Union Mattole Company. This shipment should satisfy the most incredulous that the oil interests of Humboldt county are genuine and valuable. The quantity would be much larger but for the difficulty yet experienced in procuring suitable barrels for its transportation, and the fact that there is no other means of transportation for a distance of over twenty miles, except by mule trains, which is both difficult and expensive. A few barrels of the shipment are from the Joel Flat well, the prospects of which are said to be very flattering. When the steamer left Eureka a report had been received and was accredited that oil had been struck in large quantities in the well of the Oil Creek Company, on Bear river, which had been sunk to a depth of about one hundred feet. The other companies, boring both at Mattole and Bear river, were meeting with favorable indications and were sanguine of success.—S F Call, Aug 26th.

ATZEROTT'S SPIRIT.—This poor wretch, whose complicity in the murder of the President brought him, and justly so, to the gallows, made a confession in which, after detailing some facts touching his agency in the matter, he proceeded to speak of the influences which led him to be a party to so awful a crime. We quote:

Slavery had put him on the side of the South. He had heard it preached in church that the curse of God was upon the slaves, for they were turned black. He always hated the niggers and felt that they should be kept in ignorance.

Negrophobia is a common characteristic of wicked and degraded natures in this country, and that spirit which would deny a negro a title merely because he is a negro, is the same in kind, however it may differ in degree, from that which drove Atzerott to crime and infamy.

WADE HAMPTON.—Prentice lately got off the following:

Wade Hampton, in a long letter to the New York Day Book, dated Columbia, South Carolina, June 10th, attacks General Sherman's official report of his march through the Carolinas as "misrepresenting him in the grossest and falsest manner." Wade may attack General Sherman's reports, but if he had [illegible] at the head of his troops attacked Sherman himself he would have been Wade and found wanting.

COL BAKER AND THE BROKERS.—The Washington [illegible] speaking of Colonel Baker and the New York Bounty Brokers says: "Every one of the arrests complained of was made upon the [illegible] authority [illegible] [illegible] Colonel Baker [illegible] that he [illegible] directly or indirectly received a penny [illegible] of those who charge him with false imprisonment, assault and battery, and with receiving money for their release from confinement."

MILES O'REILLY.—The [illegible] says that Colonel Halpin (Miles O'Reilly), editor of the New York Citizen, is the author of "The Flaunting Lie," the poem published in the New York Tribune some years since, in which the inconsistency of the flag of the free floating over three million slaves was so vigorously set forth.

FACTS ABOUT MILK.—Cream cannot rise through a great depth of milk. If, therefore, milk is desired to retain its cream for a time, it should be put into a deep, narrow dish; and if it be desired to free it most completely of cream, it should be put into a broad shallow dish, not much exceeding one inch in depth. The evolving of cream is facilitated by a rise and retarded by a fall of the temperature. At the usual temperature of the dairy, 50 degrees Farenheit, all the cream will probably rise in thirty six hours, but at seventy degrees it will probably rise in half that time, and when the milk is kept near the freezing point, the cream will rise very slowly, because it becomes solidified. In wet and cold weather milk is less rich than in dry and warm. The season has its effects. The milk in Spring is supposed to be best for drinking, and hence it would be best for calves. In Summer it is best suited for cheese, and in Autumn the butter keeping better than that of Summer, the cows less frequently milked give richer milk, and consequently more butter. The morning's milk is richer than that of the evening. The last drawn milk, the "strippings," at each milking and at all times and seasons is richer than the first milked, which is over the percent.—N H Journal of Agriculture.

HOME EDUCATION COMBINED WITH PUBLIC EDUCATION.—Happiest, perhaps, of all, if they know it, are those in whom the advantages of school instruction are combined with the blessings of home education. For never let a parent imagine that he can delegate altogether the office with which God has intrusted him, deputing all its duties, and retaining its endearments. God has charged him with his children, and God will call him to account. It matters not how perfect the discipline, nor how sound the instruction, by which the loss of parental education is compensated. These things can not give that from which they essentially differ, something else they may give—something lofty and admirable, fruitful in practical talents and in many virtues—but they can not counterfeit a parent's love such as it ought to be, nor a parent's care such as it ought to be, for the souls of his children. It is well, therefore, when the latter are not wholly exchanged for the former—when the influence of home is not wholly suspended, but remains, as it were, in the back ground, to exercise a softening and hallowing power over hearts no longer all its own.

TOO LATE.—Alas! how many hearts have ceased to beat with the wild pulsation of hope when those cruel crushing words have fallen on the ear, leaving only the utter blankness of despair! How often have the struggles of long weary years realized a fortune too late! How often we have all found what we coveted most—friends, power, love—but too late! How madly happy it would have made us once, before our trust had been deceived, and our spirit broken! It sickens us now, for we had given up the thought of it long ago, and turn from it even as the dying beggar turns from food, the want of which has killed him.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivaled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned and also

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLOUR ALBUS,

And in every disease in any way connected with the disordered condition of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The drooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step, his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active. He goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor.—The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER,
INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING OR PAINFUL
URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For those diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females,

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.
